11.14 US Government Rights. Each of the software components that constitute the Subscription Services and the Documentation is a "commercial item" as that term is defined at 48 C.F.R. § 2.101, consisting of "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation" as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. § 12.212. Accordingly, if you are an agency of the US Government or any contractor therefor, you receive only those rights with respect to the Subscription Services and Documentation as are granted to all other end users, in accordance with (a) 48 C.F.R. § 227.7201 through 48 C.F.R. § 227.7204, with respect to the Department of Defense and their contractors, or (b) 48 C.F.R. § 12.212, with respect to all other US Government customers and their contractors.

Exhibit A

Service Level Agreement

1. Service Level

1.1 Availability. The Subscription Service will be available 99.9% of the time per quarter, except for any downtime due to Maintenance or a Force Majeure Event ("Uptime Availability"). For any partial calendar quarter during which Customer subscribes to the Subscription Service, Uptime Availability will be calculated based on the entire calendar quarter, not just the portion for which Customer subscribed. In addition, unavailability for some specific features or functions within the Subscription Service, while others remain available, will not constitute unavailability of the Subscription Service, so long as the unavailable features or functions are not, in the aggregate, material to the Subscription Service as a whole.

1.2 Maintenance. "Maintenance" shall mean any scheduled maintenance on the Subscription Service or any unplanned maintenance lasting less than 15 minutes.

2. Service Credits. If the Subscription Service does not meet the Uptime Availability in any given calendar quarter (excluding any Maintenance or Force Majeure Event) and this downtime significantly affected Customer's ability to use the Subscription Service, then CloudBolt will credit Customer with an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the Subscription Service monthly fee for each two hours of general Subscription Service unavailability below 99.9%, up to a maximum of thirty percent (30%) of the Subscription Service monthly fee. Any such credit shall be applied to Customer's next invoice (or refunded if there are no forthcoming invoices). This credit is Customer's sole and exclusive remedy. Any obligations of CloudBolt under this Exhibit shall become null and void upon any breach by Customer of the Agreement, including any failure by Customer to meet payment obligations to CloudBolt.

3. Claim Reporting. To file a claim under this Exhibit, Customer must send an email to support@couboltsoftware.com with the following details:

- Billing information, including company name, billing address, billing contact and billing contact phone number;
- Downtime information with dates and time periods for each instance of downtime during the relevant period; and
- An explanation of the claim made under this Exhibit, including any relevant calculations.

Claims may only be made on a calendar quarter basis and must be submitted within 10 business days after the end of the relevant quarter, except for periods at the end of a subscription period that do not coincide with a calendar quarter, in which case Customer must make any claim within 10 business days after the end of the subscription period. All claims will be verified against CloudBolt's applicable system records. Should any periods of downtime submitted by Customer be disputed, CloudBolt will provide to Customer a record of the Subscription Service availability for the period in question. CloudBolt will only provide records of system availability in response to good faith Customer claims.
